FROM THE DIRECTOR

Our staff is dedicated to making you feel at home in your new home at Coventry Place. Our job is to make sure that your life in our community is comfortable, safe and enjoyable. We want you to be happy here and to feel you've found a place to stay, that you're part of the family. Thank you for being here.

BALLOONS FLEW HERALDING JULY 4th

We celebrated July 4th with a wonderful indoor picnic, balloons, flags, lots of friends and family, and great entertainment.

Later in the afternoon we had watermelon, but what a surprise: It was YELLOW. When we went to the farmers' market to get the watermelon, we saw huge boxes with nice, big, green watermelons from Alabama. Should've read a little more, I guess, but evidently everyone really liked it, because there was not a bit left.

On pages 6 and 7 you'll see pictures of those residents who had guests. We love having guests and hope you all will invite your family and friends to our EVENTS. The more, the merrier.

WELCOME

NEW RESIDENTS

I know you'll all want to welcome the new residents who will be moving in during August and some who moved in during July, after the newsletter was published.

Watch for the new faces and introduce yourselves. It can be challenging moving to a new home, so let's all be good neighbors.

$200

COULD YOU USE AN EXTRA $200? Talk to your friends at church, at meetings, wherever you get together. If they move into Coventry Place, not only will you have a new neighbor, you'll get $200 after they've been here for 45 days.

TALK IT UP! LET'S FILL IT UP!

$200 could be yours.

We're so glad to have Mildred back writing.

We've really missed your poems and hope there will be many more.

By the way, the piano needs you back, too!

SUMMER HEAT

July has arrived
our guest every year
Its heat is not welcome
As it brings little cheer.

Just why we have to bake
has never been revealed
July keeps its secrets
But blisters always heal.

Ho Hum and lah de dah,
We might as well submit
Cold winter can be worse
When Jack Frost does his bit.

by Mildred Holton

From Jo Ann: I know this is belated,
but I couldn't wait until next year.

HOW'S THAT AGAIN?

"Virtue is its own reward"
You may have heard it said
And yet there is another sword
That rumbles through my head.

"No good deed goes unpunished"
I certainly vouch for that,
As benefactor more than once,
My beneficiaries grow fat.

Still there is a peace of mind
That comes as I mature
And fumble through the 80s,
Not always right, but "sure."

So put away the exercise,
All that athletic stuff,
And contemplate your navel
While I sit on my duff.

DID YOU KNOW?

Seniors can get a discount on their telephone with AT&T, BUT ONLY IF YOU ASK FOR IT. Why not call and see what you can get?

Costley Mill Park is pretty in all seasons.

ON FRIDAY, AUG. 15

Conyers, Georgia 30013

770-787-9764 770-483-2455

Operated as a Private Park

Resting along the banks of Big Haynes Creek, Costley Mill park offers a retreat from the hustle and bustle of everyday life only minutes away from downtown Atlanta, Georgia. (approximately 25-30 miles east of Atlanta)

ON MONDAY, AUG. 4

Please join us for a free informational health fair from 10 a.m. to noon. We'll have several tables set up with free information. There'll also be free blood pressure and balance screenings.

ON SATURDAY, AUG. 9

At ten o'clock, Dennis Hill of Dignity Memorial will be here to speak about A TRUE GIFT OF LOVE TO YOUR FAMILY.

Residents and their families are invited to join us for refreshments and a brief presentation answering all of your questions concerning funeral and cemetery needs. Considering cremation? Why shouldn't I depend on life insurance to cover my final arrangements? How much does burial cost? All participants can receive a free Personal Planning Guide and the latest legal version of the 5 Wishes Living Will. This gives you, your family and your loved ones the opportunity to plan together instead of placing the emotional burden on them. A true gift of love. This is not a sales presentation; it is part of the Community Service offered free by Dignity Memorial. Refreshments will be served. We look forward to seeing you!!

Day to Remember

Costley Mill Park was once just Costley Mill. It started when a small group settled along the Big Haynes Creek, which later became known as Rockdale County and Costley Mill. The name came from the owner, James Luther Thomas Costley, who paid for it with crops of cotton.

The Mill was threatened by the Creek Indians, then Sherman's troops during the Civil War. It burned in 1901, was rebuilt in 1904, only to burn a final death in 1973. This was a tragic close to an era that had begun in the early 19th century.

We are so fortunate that Beverly and Syl Bowman, daughter and son-in-law of Rosa Chastain, own Costley Mill Park near Conyers. Why are we so lucky? We've been invited to visit and have a picnic lunch. Remember the date, Friday, Aug. 15. We'll leave at 10:15 a.m.

From Bill Cosby

There is no labor a person does that is undignified; if they do it right.

Anita and Kay Potter decorated and our dining room really looked festive, ready for the Fourth of July picnic.

The reflections in the mirrors in the back dining room really added to the festive look.

HOPE

"Of all the forces that make for a better world, none is so powerful as hope. With hope, one can think, one can work, one can dream.

If you have hope,
you have everything."

You can really change the world if you care enough.

Elvis Week

Elvis fans will gather Aug. 9-17 in Memphis, Tenn., to celebrate the king of rock 'n' roll in his hometown. Memphis explodes that week with a variety of music, dance, sports and social activities.

"All Shook Up."

Created by the Smithsonian Institution, the Memphis Rock 'n' Soul Museum honors musical pioneers from 1930 to 1970.

"Baby Let's Play House." Touring the Graceland Mansion is one of the most memorable activities to do in Memphis.

Visitors take an audio-guided tour, listening to stories told by Elvis and his daughter, Lisa Marie.

"Heartbreak Hotel."

Enjoy your stay in town at this fashionable boutique hotel. Each room is accented with Elvis touches. The Heartbreak Hotel features four themed suites, including the Graceland Suite with designs inspired by Elvis' home.

CELEBRATING JULY BIRTHDAYS!

WAS MARY COKER SURPRISED?

She sure was. As she was leaving the Coventry birthday party, passing by the media room, look who she found. Mary's daughter and son-in-law executed a perfect surprise party. It was great that so many of Mary's friends could come and celebrate with her here at Coventry Place.
