TRIM-A-TREE

Our annual trim-a-tree party was on Tuesday, Dec. 8. There was a great turnout, Christmas music and good refreshments.

Anita decorated 10 trees and of course got this one put up and all of the decorations ready. We had ornaments, wreaths and Christmas everywhere, thanks to Anita. She has been doing this for 23 years now and let's hope for 23 more.

Speaking of 23 years, below is Mala Mott putting an ornament on the tree. This is Mala's 22nd year to help decorate.

Kay Potter's friends Karen Johnson, Dot Smythe and Sandy Love brought the "makings" for gingerbread houses to Coventry Place. The residents who participated had lots of fun and got a beautiful Christmas decoration for their apartment.

REST EASY

January is the month of hibernation

For the roots of vegetation

In the northern hemisphere.

You may think a warmer temp

Would be more pleasant to a chimp

But we have very few of those 'round here.

So we rejoice in the information

That their wintertime vacation

Will result in better nuts and fruits.

While we bundle up so neatly

To avoid frost bite completely

And contemplate the benefits to our roots.

THE BOWERS CELEBRATE

Charlie and Dot were honored by their daughter, Ann, with a wonderful anniversary party at Coventry Place on Nov. 21. This was their 68th.

We had delicious refreshments, wine and birthday cake. Also, Mike Smith entertained by singing golden oldies. Some residents even danced. (Andrea and Arthur's picture is above.)

Chuck White, a friend of theirs, has written a story about the Bowers' life. It's included with the newsletter as an insert. I know you'll enjoy reading it.

Because Estelle Byrd had achieved the most birthdays, she blew out the candles on the cake.

We always enjoy our guests coming to celebrate with their families. Mark your calendar and join us.

The birthday party in January will be on Tuesday, Jan. 12. Each resident can have four guests, so invite your family and friends. We do need reservations so we know how many to prepare for. Please call (404) 296-0962 ahead of time.
